WHERE IS WREN, HAMMOND'S FRIEND

AUTHORITIES SEEKING WORD OF MURDERED MAN COMPANION

BODY WAS NOT TAKEN UP

Barnard Relatives Sure the Dead Man Is Ross Hammond of Baker, Ore. Mother Telegaphed to.

Since the man who was murdered near Braddyville several days ago has been identified as Ross Hammond of Baker, Ore., by E. A. McBride, F. E. Wohlford and James Hornbuckle of Barnard, the Clarinda officers are now turning their attention to find the guilty party or parties. The only clue now at hand is that according to letters written by Hammond's mother, Mrs. Anna Hammond, of Baker, to relatives in Barnard she stated that her son, accompanied by Mike Wren were on their way back East and would visit in the Barnard community about the time of the Barnard picnic. No word has been heard from Wren and no trace can be found of the car that the murdered man left Baker in.

The Barnard men were sure the man buried at Clarinda was Ham mond from articles such as his hat and a box in his pocket which contained Baker, Ore. These men also had photographs of Hammond and Sheriff H. W. Borland and the coroner at Clarinda thought these pictures resembled the dead man.

The body of the murdered man was not taken up from its grave Saturday.

Prosecuting Attorney George Anderson of Clarinda said today that the only way the body could be identified would be by the clothing, because the face was so decomposed that it could not be told from the body of a colored person.

Anderson stated he did not see the people from Barnard Saturday in Clarinda and he said it would have been impossible for the officers to identify the body by pictures which they might have brought with them. The only means of identification would be by the clothing he wore. His cigarettes had a cancellation stamp of a dealer in Glenwood, Ia.

Attorney Anderson stated three men and two women who were held in Kansas City in connection with a bank robbery in Oregon answers the description of Hammond. The coroner at Clarinda is investigating.

According to letters received by relatives at Barnard, Hammond left Baker in a Maxwell, which had been cut down to a racer. His mother stated he was accompanied by Mike Wren of that city. Wren and Hammond were chums, and when Hammond went West about eighteen months ago Wren went with him. It is also said they worked together in St. Joseph.

Hammond was not married so far as is known by his relatives at Barnard. His aunt, Mrs. Emma Hammond of Baker visited in the Barnard community about two months ago.

Hammond's hat was found five and one-half miles south of where his body was found. The authorities are of the opinion that his hat had been left in his car and was blown out of the car at this place. The party or parties that committed the crime evidently left Braddyville going South, from where Hammond's hat was.

Letters from Hammond's mother stated he was coming East to find work. It was his intention to be in Barnard for their picnic. It is thought that Hammond was murdered Friday night, Aug. 5, or the second day of the picnic. According to the shot in Hammond's head which pointed downward, the authorities were of the opinion that Hammond must have been sitting down when shot. Hammond was lying face downward when found. The reason advanced for the murder having taken place on Friday night was that neighbors had seen a car near that cornfield at about midnight that night. However his body was not found until four days afterwards.

R. H. Carter of Bolckow Sunday received a telegram from Hammond's brother, Ebbie Hammond of Baker, inquiring if Ross had arrived ther. A registered letter is also in the Bolckow post office for Hammond.

The description of Mike Wren, Hammond's companion is given as follows: height 5 feet 4 inches, weight 129 pounds, and age about 23 or 24.

Hammond formerly lived in the Bolckow and Barnard community six years ago. He worked for his cousin, E. A. McBride of near Barnard for one year.

Word is expected from Hammond's mother, Mrs. Hammond of Baker. She was notified yesterday that her son was murdered. She is not expected to come back at this time.

LAFAVOR AGAINST BONUS SESSION

STATE SENATOR HERE TODAY AGAINST ANOTHER SESSION

WOULD COST TOO MUCH

Senator LaFavor Was Well Pleased With the Road Bill—Here on School Business

"I hope that there will not be any special session of the legislature to consider the voting of bonds for the soldiers bonus bill just recently voted by Missouri because of the added expense," said Senator J. F. LaFavor of Parnell this morning during a short business visit in Maryville. Mr. LaFavor said that the object of the legislature was to cut down expenses and that it was his opinion that a special session would not be called because of the costs it would incurr.

Senator LaFavor was well pleased with the work just completed concerning the roads for Missouri.

"I didn't think that a road bill like the one just passed was possible when I first went to the legislature," he said. He said that there was lots of hard work connected with getting the bill in shape and there were all different kinds of people to be dealt with. His main purpose was to get roads for every county and for that reason he worked to get the roads and the price designated, with a minimum price.

The Senator said that he was in favor of keeping down every dollar of expense and it was for this reason that he was against house bill number 95 which would have appropriated $100,000 for the purpose of creating a commission for immigration.

Senator La Favor and John Blackman of Parnell were in Maryville this morning conferring with County Sup erintendent Bert Cooper concerning the teachers for the Parnell schools for next year.

Mrs. R. E. James, Deserted by Husband was Sent to Parnell from Ogalalla, Nebr.

The county court at a special session held this morning was considering what to do with a woman and her seven children who are in destitute circumstances. The woman gave her name as Mrs. R. E. James. The oldest of her children is thirteen years while the youngest is fourteen months.

According to Mrs. James' story, her husband deserted her about six months ago at their home in Ogalalla, Nebr. She was unable to make a living there for herself and children and the county judges of that county ordered her sent to her husband's aunt, Mrs. E. Hawk, at Parnell. Mrs. James and children arrived at Parnell about two weeks ago. Mrs. Hawk is unable to care for them.

The court will take care of the family for a few days. As they are not residents of this county, the court was thinking of sending them back to Ogalalla where Mrs. James had been a resident for several years.

MEN CHARGED WITH AUTO STEALING IN J. P. COURT

Parties Accussed of Hubbell's Car Stealing Arrianged Before Justice Johnson Today.

The five men charged with the theft of the John R. Hubbell car at Barnard July 23 were arraigned before Justice of Peace W. L. Johnson this afternoon. They were Claude George, Ernest Jackson, Jess Anderson, Willian Soloman and Charles Whitmore.

Col. John D. McNeely of St. Joseph represented George, while W. H. Sherman of St. Joseph represented the other four defendants. Frank Stever of St. Joseph took stenographic notes during the hearing.

Prosecuting Attorney McCaffrey presented the state's evidence at the hearing. John R. Hubbel, the owner of the car, was the first witness and testified that the car was stolen on the evening of July 23 when he was in Barnard attending a band concert. He also told of the car having been found in St. Joseph, having been identified at his name was on the inside of the pocket of the rear door.

Paul Campbell, living near Barnard, told about passing a Buick car with dim lights on the evening of July 23 about 9 o'clock. After passing the car, Campbell met Francis Richey who said this car had run into his buggy and had broken a wheel off. Campbell and Richey in Campbell's car caught the Buick car in about two miles. They stopped the Buick after taking the number and discussed with the two men in that car the accident that had happened and that they should pay for it. Campbell said the next time he saw these two men they were in the jail at St. Joseph, where they had been arrested on a charge of stealing Hubbell's car. The number Campbell and Richey and others took of the Buick car that night proved afterwards to be the number of Hubbell's car.

Francis Richey told practically the same story as Campbell.

At press time this afternoon, the state was still introducing evidence.

TAX REVISION UP TO THE HOUSE

FINAL VOTE WILL BE TAKEN BY HOUSE SATURDAY

WAR ON TAX PLAN BEGINS

Chairman White of National Committee Leads Democratic On slaught on Harding.

Washington, Aug. 15.—The tax revision prepared by Republican members of the house ways and means committee after consultation with President Harding was submitted to the Republican membership of the house today for endorsement. All legislative business has been suspended until an agreement can be reached on the tax legislation and the promise of party support, when it comes up for consideration Wednesday. Republican leader Mondell said that he has no doubt but that final approval will be given the measure.

Republican members of the house will seek to take a final vote Saturday on this bill, Representative Mondell announced this afternoon.

Chairman White's Statement

Chairman White of the Democratic National Committee issued the following statement:

"President Harding was called upon to choose between the Mellon plan of providing for enough revenue to meet expenditures and the Fordney plan to juggling the taxes by fictitious reductions and a false show of economy. He chose the Fordney plan seemingly sacrificing an honest financial policy to political expendiency, which ought to deceive nobody.

"An attempt has been made to cam ouflage the Fordney plan by a proposal to cut government expenditures a half billion dollars. This includes 50 million in the war department and 100 million in the navy, for which appropriations already have been made, so that the proposed cut is merely a promise and a "scrap of paper' saving.

"Another proposed saving is 100 million in the shipping board for which body the appropriations committe has already reported a bill providing for a deficiency of 48 1-2 million.

Calls it a Blow to Farmers

"The agriculture department is listed for a proposed saving of 25 million although the entire appropriation for the department is only 33 million. With nearly a billion dollars appropriated for the army and navy and the proposal to spend only 8 million dollars on the great agricultural department, which would wreck its organization, the farmers may accurately judge the merits of the Harding-Fordney financial plan.

"Included in the half billion cut is 170 million on war saving securities and Pittman act certificates coming due. This proposed saving is to be made by the simple process of not paying them that is to say by refunding them. While this policy may be desirable, it is not a saving.

HARDING'S CABINET KEEP IN TRIM BY DAILY WALKS

Rough Garb Affected by Hikers Lead Women to Mistake Them For Tramps

Washington, Aug. 15.—President Harding's Cabinet today is fully as athletic as any of its predecessors, to judge by the activities of its members during their off-hours around Washington.

Be it said in the beginning, however, that these "off-hours" are not numerous at present.

Not only the Cabinet but many members of Congress have joined in the wave of physical culture which has swept over the capital since the President became so active on links and afield.

The new fad takes various forms. Secretary of the Navy Denby, a veteran of Navy and Marine Corps, is a farmer when he has time; Secretary of Labor Davis keeps in training by eating only the lightest of lunches; several officials do away with the lunch hour altogether, and most of them are enthusiastic hikers.

The most strenuous devotees of the latter recreation, however, belong to what is known unofficially as "The Statemen's Marching Club," and it lives up to its name. Its principal members are Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., Assistant Secretary of the Navy; Senator James Wadsworth, New York, and Representative "Nick" Longworth, Ohio. Colonel Roosevelt, who is also one of the "light lunchers" mostly because of lack of time, usually leads the "column" according to his associates.

The rough garb affected by the club has led to a number of complications. Recently, while the trio were resting in a bosky section near Washington, they overheard the mother of several children who had been picnicking nearby warn her husband to "keep an eye on the children because I think there are three horrid tramps over by the road." She was greatly surprised when she found who the "tramps" were.

When President Harding "golfs" he nearly always has several of his late associates of the Senate as partners, while other members of Congress latter, in view of the local car service practice walking to "work", which is at times about the best way to get there. "Uncle Joe" Cannon of Ill., and Representative Phil Campbell of Kansas, head the Congressional hiking delegation.

Making His Own Leg.

W. I. Burns of Parnell is working on an artificial leg for himself which when completed, will be one of the best on the market. It is so arranged that when walking one will not suspect it being other than of the bone and flesh. The knee, ankle and toes will bend as natural as his own. He has been working on it for some time at his leisure hours and will soon have it completed. It is not as heavy as the artificial limbs you buy and is more durable. He expects to try and get a patent on it.—Parnell Sentinel.

UNITED STATE FOUNDS A NATIONAL PARK IN HAWAII

Kilauea Dedicates 74,000 Acres To Government on Brink of Halemaumau Volcano.

Honolulu, Aug 15.—Another unit has been added to Uncle Sam's system of national playgrounds by the official dedication of Hawaii National Park.

Simplicity marked the dedication ceremonies, which took place on the brink of Halemaumau, firepit of Kalauea Volcano, where the hot breath of Pele's fires scorched the faces of participants and onlookers. A feature of the ceremony was the chanting of an ancient Hawaiian prayer to Pele, Goddess of Fire, whose legendary home Kilauea is, followed by a repetition of the first Christian prayer repeated to the volcano by the first Hawaiian to defy Pele. The park was received on behalf of the Federal Government by A. O. Burkland, of the United States Geodetic Survey, who acted at the request of Secretary of the Interior Fall, while Lorrin A. Thurston, publisher of the Honolulu Advertiser and pioneer citizen of Hawaii, represented the Territory. Included in the large crowd which gathered to witness the ceremony was a party of twenty-eight tourists from New York, headed by H. V. Kaltenborn, of the Brooklyn Daily Eagle.

The new park, with a total area of about 74,000 acres, is divided into three section, which embraces some of the most interesting and in many respects the most noteworthy features of the entire National Park system. On the island of Hawaii are the Kilauea and Mauna Loa sections, which adjoin and which include within their boundaries two active volcanoes, Kilauea and the intermittently active volcano Mauna Loa, the latter, with an elevation of 13,675 feet, being the second highest peak in the Pacific. The third section of the park lies on the Island of Maui and is known as the Haleakala section, taking its name from the mountain whose great extinct summit crater forms the principal portion of the area controlled by the Government. The crater of Haleakala is twenty miles in circumference at its rim, which has an elevation of ten thousand feet, has a depth of over two thousand feet and an extreme width of seven miles, being the largest extinct volcanic crater known.

Comparatively speaking, Hawaii National Park is still uncommercialized, though there are two hotels in the Kilauea section and rest houses for the accommodation of tramping parties on both Haleakala and Mauna Loa.

IF THIS IS NOT A NEW FORD STORY WE'LL BUY

Elkins, W. Va., Aug. 15.—Here's a new Henry Ford story. It is told by Judge William E. Baker, of Federal District Court, and it is a new one, for it happened when Mr. Ford, H. S. Firestone and Thomas A. Edison were is Elkins the other day on their mountain camping expedition.

Two negroes were playing dice—that, is, "shooting craps"—in the street and one had taken about all the money the other had. The winner played slowly and took plently of time with the dice before he would "roll" them. The loser was impatient.

"Nigger", he said, "Ford them bones."

"What you all mean, Ford them bones?"

"I means shake, rattle ano roll, dat's what I means."

FORMER RESIDENT BACK HERE ON A VISIT NOW

James E. Sloan of Ontario, Cal., Visiting Here—Lived Here 46 Years Ago.

James E. Sloan, of Ontario, California arrived in Maryville Saturday for a few days visit with relatives and friends whom he has not seen since he left here forty years ago. Mr. Sloan said that it was certainly good news when the conductor called Maryville Saturday morning but if the conductor had not called the station he would never have guessed that this was the place that he left forty years ago.

"Everything is so changed the public buildings, schools, the hospital, and everything is so different from what it was when I left here. The residents are so much larger, bigger and better than they were then." Mr. Sloan drove out to the Lin Glasgow farm, 7½ miles south of Maryville, yesterday morning, and he said that the greatest change that he could see was the advance which the country had made.

Although Mr. Sloan is 78 years old, one would never think that he was that old from his appearance. He left California the fifteenth of July and has traveled across the United States and into Canada and is now on his return to his home in Ontario. He has made the entire trip alone. He is visiting his brother-in-law, William Armstrong of 404 East First Street. He and Mr. Armstrong came to Maryville 46 years ago from Liberty, Mo. At that time they came on the Burlington railroad as the Wabash had not been put in yet. The town as Mr. Sloan remembers it did not have any pavement and all of the walks were wooden. All of the buildings were frame except one brick building which was on the north side of the square. There was not a single building on the east side of the square at that time.

Mr. Sloan stayed here for six or seven years during which time his chief occupation was farming. He went from here to Chicago, later he moved to Indiana and where his health became poor he moved to California. From his appearance now one would never judge that his health had ever been poor. He attributes his good health to the climate of California.

Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong entertained at 12 o'clock dinner yesterday for Mr. Sloan, his nephew, James Snyder of Red Oak, Iowa, and Mrs. Laura V. Jackson, Maryville and Miss Della Nash of St. Joseph.

Mr. Sloan will leave Tuesday for Excelsior Springs and Kansas City where he will visit relatives and friends after which he will return to his home in California.

New Ditch Progressing Nicely

The dredging machine is now working north of the bridge northwest of town and making good progress on the B. A. Jones land west of the driving and training park. They will soon be on the Welch land. A bridge will be put in within the next forty days, at least that is the contract. A large crowd was out Sunday evening to see the machine work.—Parnell Sentinel.

The sea has a great effect on temperature. In hot climates it reduces the heat and in cold climates mitigates the cold.

Pianos made in England in 1913 numbered 120,000; last year the number made was only 50,000.

Magnifying the Finger Print

THE proved oil producing area in the United States is estimated as only 4500 square miles. When you contrast this with the area of the United States—3,026,789 square miles—the proved area is but a finger print on the map.

Yet from this 4500 square miles must come the raw material to drive all of our motor driven machines, and practically all of the oil to lubricate the machinery which makes possible the happiness and prosperity of the nation.

To magnify this finger print is the task in which the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is engaged.

By reason of the Burton Process, which largely increases the amount of gasoline recoverable from a given quantity of crude oil, and dozens of other methods developed in its laboratories and refineries, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has multiplied the quantity of finished petroleum products available for the use of men wherever they may live.

The development of the Burton Process has done more to promote the manufacture of automotive machinery than any other single discovery since the usefulness of gasoline as a fuel was made known. Because of it there is a plentiful supply of crude oil available today, and gasoline is selling for a low price. Without it the price of this fuel would be beyond the reach of the average man.

The use of this process is not confined to the refiners of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) alone, but is being made available to others under conditions which are just and equitable to all.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has a just pride in the work it has done, and is doing, to so increase the quantity and quality of its products as to make possible the use of labor saving machinery throughout the world.

Thus is the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) doing a big work in conserving the natural resources of the nation, and in helping others to do likewise.

long for a sane and honest revenue act in order to adjust its affairs and escape the business stagnation caused by two years' delay under Republican rule in revising the internal taxes. It will not be satisfied with this sort of political jugglery. Speaking as a business man, myself, I warn the Republican administration that business men will not be fooled by such methods in orde rto make a false show of economy.

Says Mellon Has Been Discarded

"President Harding has again further weakened failing confidence in his administration by dropping his outspoken financial advisor, Secretary Mellon, overboard in this matter, and installing Pilot Fordney to run the financial ship, relying on political legerdemain instead of a compass, and with no chart but a dream book"

Representative Oldfield of Arkansas one of the minority members of the ways and means committee, supplemented the White statement with the declaration that the Democrats will oppose the tax measure, but Oldfield gave it as his judgement that the Democratic lines would hold in the house, and that a solidly arrayed minority would oppose the measure.

Chairman White's statement may be assumed to have paved the way for Democratic opposition and to have indicated the course of that opposition. His denunciation will be reiterated on the floor of the house in the debate on the bill.

Read These A B C Rules About Batteries

Adjustment and oiling make your bearings last longer—proper inflation and careful driving make your tires last longer—cleaning makes your spark plugs serve longer and better. It is worth remembering that there are rules just as simple for making your battery last longer and serve more faithfully.

Here are three rules in A B C form:

1—Put in water regularly and keep up the charge.

2—Come in every two weeks for battery service.

3—And when your present battery wears out, buy a Willard Threaded Rubber Battery—the only battery with Threaded Rubber Insulation between the plates.

There is only one battery good enough for us to back by our unqualified recommendation—that's the Willard Threaded Rubber Battery. Come in—and we'll show you some records it has made right here.

BEST INFORMED COP

Recently the chief of police of Chicago started a few scouts out to find which one of his 4,500 policemen was the most polite and best informed. Policeman Patrick J. Sheehy, stationed at Dearborn street bridge, won the prize. When Sheehy went on the police force he was not very well read and seeing that the public asked a great many questions, he began to study nights; today he can tell you where to buy a straw hat cheapest, what the fare is from New York to Hong Kong, or any other question you can propound him.

Snowproof Ponies.

In discussing the problem of the origin of horses, an eminent investigator described as one of the most distinct kinds now living the Celtic ponies, which are found in the most northern parts of Iceland. They reach a height of only 4 feet and are so abundantly furnished with hair that in winter storms they are practically snowproof. He observed the conduct of one of these ponies during a snowstorm. As soon as the storm began the animal turned her hind quarters to it and in a short time the snow had formed a kind of shield or disk upon the long hair growing about the root of the tail. Thus protected the pony did not shift her position, while the storm lasted, except to turn with a change of the wind.

BETTER ROADS CONTEST.

Patrolmen Along Our Trail Highway Have a Chance to Win $500.00 In Cash Prizes.

This issue contains a map of the main highway from Greater Kansas City through this county, together with the announcement of the Better Roads Contest now being conducted by the Good Roads Association of Greater Kansas City, J. Frank Smith, manager. Along side the map of the highway are the names of all of the road officials and patrolmen who are dragging and caring for the roads. The route in each county is divided into sections and numbered, and a like number is opposite the name of the man or men who maintain that section. By this plan, the traveler can note the condition of the road and by referring to the names of the patrolmen, can see who is keeping their section in the best condition. The two prizes, $300 and $200, will go to the men who do the work on the roads.

The Midland Trail has added $200 to the prizes, making them $400 and $300 if won by any county on that trail between Manhattan, Kansas, and Sedalia, Missouri. The Midland Trail Club of Holden has added $100 and $50 to the prizes, providing that route across Johnson County, Missouri, wins the honors. Several other highway associations and commercial clubs are planning to follow this example to encourage the patrolmen on their routes to win these prizes.

The road boosters in this county are hoping that the patrolmen along our highway will win the cash prizes. In doing this, these men will not only win honors and a liberal cash reward for themselves, but they will win the gratitude of the traveling public and also bring credit and a good reputation to their county and to this highway for having the best road of any route within 100 miles of Greater Kansas City.

All of our readers are invited to examine the map and read the announcement of the contest. It is hoped that not only the road officials, but the traveling public will co-operate to make this movement for better roads a success.

If you are planning to travel this route soon, it might be well to cut out this map for use on the trip. Or better still, write to the Good Roads Association of Greater Kansas City for a card map of this or any other route found on their list. The maps will be sent free on request.

The Wild Animal Republic

—a real democracy in Yellowstone Park

The world's greatest wild animal refuge is Yellowstone Park. There the rarest and noblest of American big game lives its old wild life. You who love the wild, see its creatures in their natural haunts.

Lordly elk roam the pasture lands; bison still graze the plains; the vanishing big horn pose against the sky; the graceful antelope may still be seen — fleet, shadowy; the wise beaver plies his age-old trade; the big and little bears clown and make friends with you.

To Wild Animal-land —through Gardiner Gateway

Nowhere else in all the world, besides can you find Nature so spectacular. Geysers spurting, gem-tinted hot springs bubbling, thundering cataracts, the indescribable glory of the Grand Canyon! Fresh wonders thrill you a hundred times a day in Yellowstone.

Out, Cody Road

See Cody, Wyoming, "Buffalo Bill's" home town; stupendous Shoshone Canyon and the gigantic Government dam, higher than the New York Flatiron Building. Motor over this "Most wonderful 90 miles in America"—without side trip or extra cost.

Then to Colorado; Denver—the Gateway to Colorado's "Land Among the Clouds," where numerous and varied side trips await the taking (Rocky Mountain National—a Park—refuge of peaceful tranquility and exquisite beauty, an easy side trip).

Burlington Planned Vacations offer you the regular tour of Yellowstone plus all this—in one trip.

Come in and let me tell you more about it and help you plan.

NEW SYSTEM PERFECTED TO SCORE FOOTBALL GAMES

Minneapolis, Aug. 15.—A new system for keeping tab of every phase of a football game has been perfected by Merritt I. Wheeler of El Paso, Texas, who is in Chicago to confer with publishers with reference to turning out a scoring sheet.

He conferred here with Dr. H. L. Williams, football coach of the University of Minnesota. Wheeler said he had obtained a recommendation from Doctor Williams regarding the system.

DEVALERA WILL CONTINUE NEGOTIATIONS?

Sinn Fein Parliament Will Probably Authorize Peace Negotiations Be Continued.

London, Aug. 15.—Leaders in the Irish delegation here are confident this afternoon that the Sinn Fein parliament meeting tomorrow will authorize Eamonn DeValera to continue his peace negotiations with Lloyd George.

The correspondence between the British prime minister, Mr. Lloyd George and Eamonn De Valera, the Irish Republican leader, made public by the British government Sunday evening, shows that while there is a deadlock on the question of Independence for Ireland, the negotiations still are open.

Great Britian offered Ireland complete autonomy in finance and taxation, military forces for home defense, her own police and among other things control of the Irish postal service.

In his reply to Mr. Lloyd George, Mr. DeValera argued for independence and offered to submit the Ulster questions to arbitration.

In his final letter, Mr. Lloyd George denied Ireland's right to secession, refused foreign arbitration for Irish questions and expressed the hope that Ireland would accept the British terms, which he declared were the best that could be offered.

Dublin, Aug. 15.—Sinn Fein leaders are optimistic over the Irish peace outlook today. One leader declared that things are not so black as have been painted. The Sinn Fein held a secret session at noon but will consider negotiations tomorrow.
